

Lounge_02

The Lounge chair's frame was designed according to the weight supporting structural abilities of the steel. Thus was created a clean and gentle yet reach three dimensional shape. The generously wide proportions of the Lounge chair suggest comfortable and relaxed and the ability to fit a variety of sitting positions. The Lounge have three versions, one with seat and backrest finished in laminated poplar wood, the other finished in painted steel with an additional fabric cushion, and last - upholstered seat and backrest.
